ALICE SPRINGS COLLECTION

The Alice Springs Collection contains books, newspapers, periodicals, photographs and file clippings about Central Australia.

Our resources cover the areas North of Port Augusta, South of Tennant Creek, West to the WA border and East to the Qld border

We provide study tables, photocopier, computers and a pleasant environment for you to work or browse in. We are happy to assist with research projects. Items in the collection are not available for loan.

Our major holdings include:

- The entire set of the Centralian Advocate newspaper on CD-ROM
- Many out of print and rare books
- Copies of the Laver and Old Timers Collection of photographs

The Collection Room is closed to the public at weekends and appointments may be made to speak to the Local Knowledge & Special Collections Librarian from Monday to Friday, 10am - 5pm. For specific questions, a reference request may be lodged at the front desk.

AKALTYE ANTHEM COLLECTION

The Akaltje Antheme Collection contains books, magazines & newspapers produced by, for and about the Aboriginal people of Central Australia.

The collection includes the Ara Winki computer database showing life on the Pitjantjatjara homelands in pictures, videos & sound. There are comfortable chairs for browsing through the resources on display.
