Councillor Steve Brown resigns

Councillor Steve Brown has resigned as a member of the 14th Alice Springs Town Council, citing ongoing health and personal issues.

Cr Brown informed Council of his decision on Monday 18 March 2024 with his resignation taking effect immediately.

A born and bred Alice Springs local, Cr Brown was first elected by the community in 2012 as a member of the 12th Alice Springs Town Council. Following a four-year hiatus, he returned to the Chamber in 2021 citing a desire to see his hometown prosper.

Throughout his time on Council, Cr Brown has been a fierce advocate for enhanced liveability across our entire community including improving our 'oasis in the desert' standing, more play equipment for young children and an overall safer community.

"Losing Steve from the chamber is sad to see. He has been a fantastic contributor as an Elected Member during this term, providing valuable insight with his local knowledge and passion," Mayor Matt Paterson said.

"Through his combined eight years as an Elected Member, Steve has been a credit to his community. While we will miss his insight in the Chamber, we recognise that Steve must put his personal health and needs first. On behalf of the entire 14th Council, we wish Steve all the best moving forward."

With the next local government election scheduled for August 2025, Council has a process to follow to fill the casual vacancy.
