Councillor Gavin Morris resigns

Councillor Gavin Morris has resigned as a member of the 14th Alice Springs Town Council.

Cr Morris informed Council of his decision on 25 March 2025 with his resignation taking effect immediately.

Elected in 2022 at a by-election, Cr Morris has served as a member of the Sports Facilities Advisory Committee, ASTC and Lhere Artepe Aboriginal Corporation Partnership Committee and ASTC and Tangentyere Council Steering Committee.

“I’d like to thank Gavin for his contribution to the 14th Alice Springs Town Council, his knowledge and insight has been an asset for our community,” Mayor Matt Paterson said.

“This Council has been one of progress an innovation and has achieved a range of amazing outcomes for Alice Springs. That will continue now as we drive our community forward towards an exciting future.”

Being within six months of a local government election, there is no requirement for Council to fill the vacancy.
