New Community Development Director announced

Alice Springs Town Council is pleased to announce the commencement of Ms Kim Sutton in the role of Director of Community Development.

“With considerable experience in community development, we welcome Kim to this important role at Council. Kim has a strong community and corporate sector history, specialising in areas such as youth, social improvement and program coordination.” said CEO Robert Jennings.

Kim’s career has been dedicated to community development with over 20 years experience, both internationally and in Australia. Her professional background includes executive director at RACQ Life Flight, and CEO of Gold Coast Hospital Foundation for 7 years. She has a Bachelor of Behavioural Science and is an Australian Institute of Company Directors graduate.

Kim has relocated to Alice Springs with her husband and two children and is looking forward to becoming part of the Alice Springs community.

“Having grown up in a small regional town, I’m very keen to show my young family all the benefits that come from being part of a local community. We are also looking forward to exploring the landscapes and uniqueness of Central Australia.” Kim Sutton, Director Community Development.
