Council's new Director Corporate Services

Alice Springs Town Council is pleased to announce the commencement of Ms Sabine Taylor in the role of Director Corporate Services.

"Sabine comes to us with a wealth of knowledge and experience, having had over 20 years in key leadership roles for many large organisations across Australia" said Robert Jennings CEO.

Sabine's significant background in corporate services includes executive leadership roles at Commonwealth Bank Australia, UniSuper, AMP and MLC for example. As well as previous roles such as Chairman of the Board for NRMA Employees Credit Union, Director Crime Stoppers NSW and Chief Operating Officer at RISQ Group.

Her most recent role was the Chief Risk Officer for Telstra Super, Australia's largest corporate superannuation fund with approximately 95,000 members and over $20 billion in funds under management. She has experience in leading transformational change and taking teams on the journey, working collaboratively and ensuring change for the right reasons.

Sabine's extensive experience and relevant background will be a strong contributor towards her service to Alice Springs. As a new resident, she is looking forward to being part of the community and exploring the region.
